

A Tranquil Getaway in Downtown St. Louis

Four Seasons Hotel, St. Louis.

By Dave Wolkowitz

This tastefully modern, uber-luxury hotel is conveniently located downtown near the St. Louis Arch. The hotel's guests enjoy the marble-dominated, yet modern décor. The hotel is close to sports venues, several casinos (one is attached), and nightlife. The hotel restaurant serves fine Italian fare and overlooks the Arch, but nearby restaurants may better please at a similar price.

The expansive full-service spa features caviar facials, exotic body-wraps and massages; guests have full access to the spa's relaxation lounges, steam rooms, saunas, and whirlpools. The rooftop pool and hot tub overlook the Arch. Rooms are outfitted appropriately for business guests, and tourists will enjoy the pampering and exclusivity.

Pros: attentive service, great location near downtown sports venues, nightlife and theatres.

Cons: aside from the casinos, the closest nightlife caters to a sub-30 crowd.

Address & Contact:

999 North Second Street, downtown (Laclede's Landing), St. Louis, MO 63102. Ph: 314-881-5800. www.fourseasons.com/stlouis.

Features:

In-room: safe, DVD, Ethernet, Wi-Fi.

In-hotel: 1 restaurant, room service, bar, pool, gym, spa, children's programs (ages 3-9), laundry service, concierge, public Wi-Fi, airport shuttle, parking (fee), no smoking rooms. Rooms start at $345.